Rediscovering My Calling

Toward the beginning of April, I sensed the Lord calling me into a time of deep reflection. During this time of discernment, the Lord seemed to be reminding me of my passion for reaching those who have been disenfranchised by the Church or are distant with Christianity.

This rediscovery of calling has caused me to reevaluate how I steward the time that I have been given. Moving forward I will be carving out space to engage in mission to these two missional frontiers. I am excited for this season of moving out in mission. It has been a blessing to learn over the last eight years from a mentor who has both developed and implemented strategies that have been extremely productive in these types of missional endeavors.

As in all things in the Kingdom of God, Jesus never calls people into endeavors as "Lone Rangers", therefore I am open and excited to receive any partners that would want to join in this missional endeavor. If you share my heart for mission, then I invite you give it a go with me. Just contact me and we will have a chat about how you can join the adventure.

This journey will only be productive as we invite God to be our guide and provider. To that end I am also seeking people who will be prayer partners in this journey. Let me know if you would like to fill this vital role for this mission and ministry.

I am looking forward to all that God has for us as his people. Know that I will also be giving my energies toward supporting and leading, when necessary, all the ministries we offer as a Church to those who embrace Jesus and His Church. We are so blessed to have so many great leaders at Floyd Baptist Church, and this reality has given me a sense of freedom to follow God fully in this rediscovered calling.

Because of His Love
Jeff
